ABOUT BAKER DONELSON'S NEW OFFICE SPACE IN THE DISTRICT AT EASTOVER

- The space 69,755-square-foot office will encompass three floors.
- There are 124 private offices and 38 open workstations expandable to 44.
- The space features 14 conference rooms with audio/visual capabilities in each and multiple rooms equipped with secure video conferencing capabilities on each floor.
- There is a kitchenette on each floor.
- All workstations are equipped with sit-stand desks.
- There are multiple work rooms and shared common areas on each floor.
- A fifth floor multipurpose room of about 3,500 square feet will have an adjoining café and balcony for large client and internal firm functions. The room includes a skyfold wall that recesses into the ceiling and is separated from the adjoining space by an acoustic glass wall movable partition, which enables the space to be converted from three separate rooms to one large open area.
- “Green” elements incorporated in the office design include all LED lighting, motion detector controls for office lighting to reduce electrical consumption when the areas in office are unoccupied, and glass fronts on the offices to allow for more natural light in interior spaces, reducing the need for light from electrical fixtures.
- Through efficiencies in design and space allocation and the reduction of paper storage through the Firm’s PaperLite Initiative, the Firm achieved an 18 percent reduction in square footage from the previous office space, while still allowing ample room for future growth.
